PROFILE

Jonny Mounayer was born in Zahle 1963 and received his mathematics certificate from Al-Charkeye College in Zahle Rassieh. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Media Communication.

He started his career as a reporter for Voice of Lebanon Radio in 1981 during the Zahle War. He was arrested by the Syrian intelligence in Anjar in 1986. After his release, he moved out from Zahle to live in a safe place in Beirut and continue working as a reporter and columnist with his many media institutions such as Al-Nahar, Al-Arabi, Al-Dawla, and L'Orient de Jour newspaper.

He later assumed the responsibility of the director of news and political programs at LOT TV in 2011. Then, he submitted his resignation.

Currently, Mounayer is working as a writer and political analyst, he has been a big supporter of the October 17 revolution, and consequently received several threat messages due to this political view and stand.

OUR NEW LEBANON

"We strive to preserve Lebanon as a model of freedom and democracy. We work to promote peace, neutrality, freedom of religion, and free speech. We support economic liberty and political independence. To strengthen and expand the US-Lebanon relationship in ways that enhances the security of both countries. To educate and guide decision-makers on the bonds that unite the two countries and matters of interest to the Lebanese American Community.
