Salvation Plan for Lebanon

PROFILE

Mark Daou is a Member of Lebanese Parliament and a university lecturer in Media Studies at the American University of Beirut and the Lebanese American University. He is the founder of the Rowat Public relations firm. He is a co-founder of Taqaddom party and the presenter of the political TV program Al-Badil.

Daou has been involved in political activism for the past 25 years, fighting for Lebanon's sovereignty in the 90s, actively engaged in the Independence intifada in 2005, the Garbage protest in 2015, Beirut Madinati in 2016, the parliamentary elections of 2018 in which he headed a list, and the October 17 revolution. Daou has never been a member of a traditional party, and has maintained a clear position towards defending independence, sovereignty, free economy, secularism, social justice, and human rights. Daou is a graduate of the London School of Economics and Political Science in Political Sociology. He is also a graduate of the Business School at the American University of Beirut. He is an entrepreneur focused on the media and communications field and recently into technology outsourcing services.

OUR NEW LEBANON

"We strive to preserve Lebanon as a model of freedom and democracy. We work to promote peace, neutrality, freedom of religion, and free speech. We support economic liberty and political independence. To strengthen and expand the US-Lebanon relationship in ways that enhances the security of both countries. To educate and guide decision-makers on the bonds that unite the two countries and matters of interest to the Lebanese American Community.
