OUR NEW LEBANON

TOPIC

Lebanon's Current Affairs

PROFILE

Born in Bednayeel, Bekaa, Dr. Hareth Sleiman holds a PhD in the physics and chemistry of polymers from the University of Pierre and Marie Curie in Paris 6, France. Dr. Sleiman's research focuses on environmental sciences, particularly water and air pollution, and the chemical industry, including nano-composites and polyurethane. Starting in the 1970s, Dr. Sleiman was active in the student movement at the Lebanese University and resisted the Israeli occupation in South Lebanon. He opposed the Syrian guardianship over Lebanon, despite persecution and assassination attempts. In the 1980s, he promoted peace and democracy through youth dialogues and conferences. Dr. Sleiman was a board member of the "Movement of Democratic Renewal" and an advisor to Minister Nassib Lahoud. He is a political analyst and writer, contributing to discussions on Arab and regional affairs. Dr. Sleiman has been actively involved in the Lebanese revolution since October 17, 2019, advocating for political change.

OUR NEW LEBANON

We are dedicated to preserving Lebanon as a beacon of freedom and democracy. Our goals include promoting peace, neutrality, and freedom of religion and speech, while supporting economic liberty and political independence. We aim to strengthen and expand the U.S.- Lebanon relationship to enhance the security of both nations. By educating and guiding decision-makers, we highlight the deep bonds that unite the two countries and address issues important to the Lebanese American
